The references should meet the requirements of the Harvard referencing system (<https://www.citethisforme.com/harvard-referencing>). Electronic resources must indicate the date of the last access.

References - should be transliterated into Latin, see "List of bibliographic references". If the bibliographic source is in the Cyrillic alphabet, it should be transliterated into Latin (transliteration of the author's name, transliteration of the source title + [translation of the source title in English], transliteration of the publication title + [translation]).

If the source is in English, it should be cited in accordance with the Harvard referencing system (<https://www.citethisforme.com/harvard-referencing>). For Ukrainian-language references, you can use the online transliteration tool <http://www.slovnyk.ua/services/translit.php> or <http://ukrlit.org/transliteratsiia>.

The grammatical correctness of transliteration is the responsibility of the author. If the materials referenced by the author have a DOI, it should be indicated after the URL.

In view of the inclusion of the collection of materials in scientometric databases and for the purpose of correct indexing of articles, the following should be added to the materials in English: information about the author (full name, academic degree and title, place of work - without abbreviations), title of the abstract, abstract of 120-180 words, keywords. An identical version of the abstract should also be provided in Ukrainian.
