Key Dates:

The submission of application forms and articles for publishing in the monograph: before March 31, 2023 (inclusively).

Feedback on papers acceptance: within 1–2 working days after papers receipt.

E-mail distribution of the monograph's layout and the certificate: after June 16, 2023.

Registration Procedure:

To publish contributions in the collective monograph, authors should act as follows:

1. fill in an application form and send a manuscript to **law@cuesc.org.ua** for peer-review before March 31, 2023;
2. send a copy of the payment confirmation following the manuscript's approval for publication. Re: Collective monograph.

Monograph Target Topics:

1. Controversial issues in the content of history disciplines.
2. Issues of the content of civic education (including philosophy, ethics, and religious studies).
3. Amendments in the content of legal disciplines.
4. Traditional and innovative methods and technologies of learning and teaching social science disciplines in general secondary, professional pre-higher, and higher education institutions.

Article Requirements:

An article should be a holistic document of scientific content that involves the results of the author's original researchers.

The volume of the monograph subsection should be at least 15–30 pages. A4 paper format, line space – 1,5; Times New Roman, 14 size; all margins – 20 mm. 3 persons are a maximum number of authors.

Languages: Latvian, English and Ukrainian.

Article General Structure:

Monograph section name; author's surname and initials in the publication's language.

A paper should have the following structure: a short introduction (1–2 pages), 2–3 equally weighted sections and conclusion (1 page), summary: 7–10 sentences in the article's language (to indicate a range of problems and research results).

The article must have per-page citations as well as References at the end. Citations should be indicated with a number without brackets and dots using Microsoft Word references.

To improve the quality level of scientific citations in the scientometric database Open Ukrainian Citation Index (OUCI), it is important to indicate DOI for every source which it has.

Attention! References are in a source language and executed taking into account the National Standard of Ukraine DSTU 8302: 2015 “Information and documentation. Bibliographic reference. General principles and rules of composition”.

Author's full name and information: scientific degree and rank, post, affiliation; address of employment place (in English regardless of the publication's language).

Attention! In case of submitting a non-English article, an author should additionally submit an English name of the section and its structural elements (subsections) (see a design sample).
