Dear colleagues!

We invite you to participate in the activities of the authors' team to write a collective monograph

“Philology and philological education in the digital transformation era:
European dimensions, national context,
intercultural communication”

Scholars, academic staff, and postgraduate students, who have or are obtaining a degree in philology, are invited to contribute to writing the collective monograph.

The future publication will be a result of the activities of the authors' team united by a common idea to present achievements of their researches.

The monograph is published by the European publishing house “Izdevniecība “Baltija Publishing” (Riga, Latvia) and recommended for printing by the institution's academic council. Three reviewers, who are mentioned in the monograph's output data, guarantee an independent review.

The monograph is awarded ISBN that permits authors to participate in developing the collective scientific paper published in the country of the EU.

DOI is assigned to every article included in the collective monograph that allows the authors to find their scientific work on the Open Ukrainian Citation Index (OUCI) site, which was developed by specialists of the State Scientific and Technical Library of Ukraine on behalf of the Collegium of the Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine.

The monograph will be available on the website of the European publisher “Izdevniecība “Baltija Publishing”” at the link.

The authors of the collective monograph's section receive an electronic layout of the collective monograph and a certificate.

Why is the publication of the monograph section valuable?
*(for fulfilling the licensing conditions,
to obtain the degree of Doctor and Candidate of Sciences, for awarding the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (PhD), for young scientists)*
